Mysuru-Mangaluru flight begins operation from today

Mysuru, Dec.11 (RK&SSV)- The long demand for air connectivity between Mysuru and Mangaluru became a reality with a flight belonging to Alliance Airlines, a subsidiary of Air India, with 23 passengers took off from Mandakalli Airport in city this morning.

Mysuru-Kodagu MP Pratap Simha, Chamundeshwari MLA G.T. Deve Gowda, Airport Director R. Manjunath and Air India's Regional Subsidiary Alliance Air Chief Executive Officer Harpreet A De Singh, former President of FKCCI Sudhakar S. Shetty and others flagged off the Mysuru-Mangaluru maiden flight.

As soon as the aircraft arrived from Cochin, a traditional water salute was given by two fire tenders and a cake was cut to mark the occasion.

Briefing reporters at the Airport, Harpreet Singh said that Mysuru-Mangaluru-Mysuru flight had been introduced under 'Non-Udaan' scheme on commercial basis. The airfare is Rs. 2,300 for one side but the fare would fluctuate depending upon demand. "I want people of Mysuru and Mangaluru to make use of this facility. Connecting two cities will help in promotion of tourism, business and education," she said.

Shetty said that this flight had been long pending and it was happy to note that this was fulfilled today. About 60,000 people of Dakshina Kannada are settled in city and they were finding it difficult to travel to their district especially during rainy season due to landslides in ghat section. The introduction of air service will enable people to reach Mangaluru within one hour".

9th standard car driver kills 3 of a family

Mysuru, Dec. 11 (RK&KS)- A minor boy, who was allegedly behind the wheels of a car, rammed the vehicle into a two-wheeler killing three persons of a family near Dandi Maramma Temple on Mysuru-Bengaluru Road yesterday night.

The deceased have been identified as Ramesh (41), working as a cashier at a bar and restaurant in city, his wife Usha (36) and son Manish (5). Another son Siddarth, three-year-old, who sustained injuries in the mishap, is undergoing treatment at K.R. Hospital here. They were residents of T.K. Layout in city.

While husband, wife and son died on the spot, another escaped with injuries.

Police said at the time of accident, a minor boy, who is said to be a 9th standard student, was driving the car.

According to eyewitnesses, the car was proceeding towards Bengaluru side when it hit the road median near Dandi Maramma Temple on Mysuru-Bengaluru Road and jumped to the other side of the road and hit the two-wheeler which was coming from Bengaluru side.

On Thursday morning, Ramesh, with his family members had gone to his in-laws' house at Siddalingapura on his Hero Honda Splendor bike (KA-10-H-9100). After spending the day, they left Siddalingapura

Doctors strike

OPD, consultation services hit at several private hospitals; clinics fully shut

Mysuru, Dec. 11 (MTY&BCT)- The Allopathic doctors' strike today called against the Government's decision to allow post-graduate Ayurvedic doctors to perform surgeries, caused disruptions in healthcare services in city amid COVID-19 pandemic.

Only emergency services and COVID services functioned as usual at over 140 private hospitals. Over 1,800 clinics were completely shut in protest against the Government move. Patients who came for consultation and to avail Out-Patient Department (OPD) services were turned away from hospital doors where 'emergency service only' boards were put up. Patients who were turned away were clueless about the strike call and returned home after waiting for some time hoping for medical services to resume. Some patients headed towards State-run hospitals as they functioned normally. Even the OPD at Govt. hospitals functioned as usual.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

These days much of the conversation is about how it is December, thank goodness, and the end of this ghastly 2020 is nearing. As the Queen of England once said, annus horribilis. And underlying this general feeling of relief is rampant hope that in some magical way the change of the calendar will end the COVID-19 pandemic. Come January 1 morning there will be a mandated hangover sharing space with much happiness that the worst is over. And that little thing wriggling in the dust will be the dying Coronavirus. Overnight we have won the war. Auld Lang Syne, brother. This brainwash occurs at a very early stage in life when the human race is programmed to believe that there is some cosmic rule which manifests itself at midnight of every new year after we scream that 10-9-8-7 countdown and this wipes the slate clean.

Not that one wishes to burst anyone's bubble but nothing could be further from the truth. There will be a date change for sure but whether the calendar is Roman, Gregorian, Lunar or Vikrama, Nature couldn't care less. She isn't party to our astral shenanigans and soothsayers and clairvoyants aside, Nature has not told COVID-19 to beware, watch your back, they are out to get you because the year is changing. Ah, says my friend on the phone, 2021 has to be better, glad this year is over, it sucked big time. That it did but what if it is in cahoots with 2021 and is just passing on the baton and next year is just going to keep running on the same track, even worse. Remember how we betrayed 2019 and at midnight dumped it so fast as we cheered 2020 in and look what that did to us. Knifed us in the back, it did. What we would give to turn the clock back and wipe this 2020 off the charts like it never happened, turn the page. — Bikram Vohra in The Times of India

NEWS SPARKLERS

Rescue chopper spots hubby's romantic tribute to wife

Auckland: The crew of a Auckland Westpac Rescue Helicopter flying over a forested region near Kaipara Falls, in New Zealand, spotted a bunch of trees planted in the shape of a heart, in the middle of a small forest.

Dubbed the "heart of the forest," the unusual find went viral on social media last month. This was the first time a Westpac Rescue team spotted the tree heart, so they didn't have any story to share, but a number of comments on the original Facebook post claimed that it was the work of a certain Wayne Barnes, who also built a dwelling nearby, as a romantic gesture for his wife, Rosie.

It's unclear whether Wayne or his wife are still around, but the heart of the forest is apparently a popular sight among the people of Kaipara Falls, especially in autumn. Barnes' romantic tribute is visible not only from high up in the sky, but also as you drive down Hills Road, in the Kaipara Falls area, if you know where and when to look.

Breaks Guinness Record for world's largest afro

Brooklyn: A young woman from Brooklyn, New York, identified as Simone Williams, recently broke the Guinness record for world's largest natural afro, with her impressive 4 ft. 10 in (1.48 m) hairdo.

Simone started growing her hair naturally 9 years ago, as a way to save money on hair salon visits. She never imagined that she would one day break the record for the world's largest female afro. She admits that the transition was pretty tough at first, as she didn't know how to properly manage her natural hair texture. She eventually got used to it and actually started comments and compliments on her "voluminous natural afro." After reading about the previous record holder, Aevin Dugas, she was inspired to break the record, but she still couldn't believe it when she got the news.

VOICE OF THE READER

Plight of Vijayanagar
Water Tank area residents

Sir,

The areas in and around Vijayanagar Water Tank are in complete shambles. Roads are ripped off for more than a year now. The Park stretch between Vidyavardhaka Engineering College and temporary food street is in a neglected condition with overgrown shrubs and the place used as open urinals.

By-lanes near the area are make-shift dining places (or drinking places) for the nearby bars. Footpaths have vanished. Haphazard parking has thrown public onto the roads.

Commercial encroachments (so much so, a quick bite hotel is using 'No-Parking' board as a light pole!) have constricted pedestrian access. Only visible official activity is helmet checking by traffic cops near the abandoned bus stand.

Harried citizens are wondering why this important area is being subjected to extreme neglect by the elected representatives. Is anyone responsible listening? Please move around once and you will understand the plight of general public.

Education and sports must go hand-in-hand: Javagal Srinath
New Advisory Committee to guide Police Public School

Mysuru, Dec. 11 (RKB&BCT)- "Academics have been considered to be the most important aspect of one's success and growth of mind. Through the years it has been proven that sports is equally important. Sports can not only build your physical health, but also mental health. Sports can also help one to deal with the mental stress of examination or academic pressure," opined former international cricketer Javagal Srinath.

He was speaking after inaugurating a new Advisory Committee formed by Karnataka State Police Welfare and Education Trust at Police Public School auditorium in city yesterday. "Education and sports are complimentary to each other and importance must be given to both. Sports has always played an essential and effective role in the development of mind and body. Physical activity helps in making a person healthy and fit. It also helps one acquire logical reasoning and critical thinking," Srinath said.

Both sports and academics have their own set of benefits that contribute to the nourishment of a child. No one has been able to say whether sport is greater than academics or academics is greater than sports. Such segregation is impossible to make. Academics and sports need to be placed rightly in a person's life and given equal importance, he added.

Former athlete and Director of Karumbaiah Academy of Learning and Sports Ashwini Nachappa also stressed the need for treating sports equal to academics. "An institution's competence will depend on its administration and Police Public School is doing a great job here," she said.

JSS Academy of Higher Education and Research (JSS AHER) Pro-Chancellor Dr. B. Suresh said that students contribute immensely for the success of an institution. If there are no students, basic facilities, teachers and even administrative bodies have no role to play.

Presiding over the event, Hon. President of the Trust and Southern Range IGP Vipul Kumar said that in the Police Department, the constabulary that is 82 percent form the life support system of the Department. "It is our responsibility to ensure the welfare of the Constables and other ranking officers and their families. We need to shape the future of the children by giving them quality education. The Police Public School is leaving no stone unturned in this direction," he added.

The newly-formed Advisory Committee will discuss ways and means to take Police Public School that has over 1,700 children towards greater heights. They will provide suggestions to the school management towards bringing change in the outlook and compete with other schools.

Head Master of Lawrence School in Ooty K. Prabhakaran Nair, Superintendent of Police C.B. Ryshyanth who is also the Hon. Secretary of the Trust, Principal of Police Public School Rennie Joseph Mendonca, KSRP Commandant R. Janardhan and others were present.

First phase GP polls: Deadline for filing of nomination papers ends today

Mysuru, Dec.11(MC&DM)- The deadline for filing of nomination papers for the first phase of Gram Panchayat (GP) polls ended today. From the first day on Dec.7 till Thursday, over 4,700 nomination papers have been filed for the first phase of polls in the district with 3,200 of them filed on Thursday alone.

Forty-one GPs in Hunsur taluk, 34 in K.R. Nagar taluk, 34 in Periyapatna taluk, 26 in H.D.Kote taluk and 13 in Sargur taluk will go to polls on Dec.22.

Meanwhile, the nomination for the second phase of polls scheduled to take place on Dec.27, began today. The last date for filing of nomination papers for the second phase of polling is Dec.16.

No polls in 4 GPs of Mysuru and 2 in N'gud

The polls for 4 GPs in Mysuru taluk and 2 in Nanjangud taluk will not take place now due to re-organisation following the formation of Hootagalli CMC (City Municipal Council) and 4 Town Panchayats.

Devalapura, Beerihundi, Alanahalli and Koorgalli GPs in Mysuru taluk and Deveerammanahalli and Debur GPs in Nanjangud are the ones which won't be going to the polls now. These GPs have to be reconstituted as Hootagalli CMC will be formed and some villages coming under the two GPs in Nanjangud taluk will be merged with Nanjangud CMC.

To facilitate reconstitution of the GPs, the polls for a total of 156 seats in 14 GPs, including 12 seats in Yelwal GP, 23 in Koorgalli GP, 22 in Hinkal GP, 9 in Belawadi GP, 8 in Rammanahalli GP,10 in Devalapura GP, 8 in Hosahundi GP, 9 in Kadakola GP, 9 in Beerihundi (Mellahalli) GP, 6 in Maratikyathnahalli GP, 8 in Bogadi GP, 4 in Hanchya GP, 11 in Alanahalli GP and 17 in Srirampura GP, will not be held.

APMC Bill passed in Assembly

Bengaluru, Dec.11 (KMS& SSV)- The Karnataka Legislative Assembly on Thursday passed the Karnataka Agricultural Produce Marketing (Regulation and Development) (Amendment) Bill 2020, in the absence of Opposition parties.

The Karnataka Agricultural Produce Marketing (Regulation and Development) (Amendment) Bill 2020 is the State version of the Central legislation to modify the APMC law.

The amended law allows farmers to sell their produce outside APMC markets.

Co-operation Minister S.T. Somashekar tabled the Bill in the Assembly. He said the Bill was passed in the State Legislative Council and the same need to be passed in the State Assembly.

Araga Jnanendra (BJP) termed efforts are made to portray this Bill as anti-farmer but it was pro-farmer and welfare-oriented. "I am an areca farmer and I was paying 3 per cent commission and cess. This was making a difference of Rs.1 lakh per truck load," he said.

Deputy Chief Minister and Transport Minister Laxman Sangappa Savadi said those who were opposing this Bill must tell how it was anti-farmer and cause loss for them. Traders were illegally collecting commission from farmers. If they have real concern for farmers then they must welcome the new Bill, he added.

Kollegal MLA N. Mahesh said he would not talk about the APMC (amendment) Bill but the Government must clarify whether it would help multi-national companies to monopolise farm sector. This was the biggest doubt that farmers have in their mind. Farmers would definitely welcome this Bill if the Government announces Minimum Support Price (MSP).

Minister Somashekar said between 2013 and 2018, permission had been given to 60 MNCs but none had said that it was anti-farmer. The Government would like to clarify that the MSP system would remain, he added.

It may be mentioned here that in May this year, the State Government had brought in the Karnataka Agricultural Produce Marketing (Regulation and Development) (Amendment) Ordinance, 2020, following a Cabinet decision to amend the Karnataka Agricultural Produce Marketing (Regulation and Development) Act, 1966.

MUDA reclaims encroached property worth Rs. 15 crore

Mysuru, Dec. 11 (RK&BCT)- The Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) has reclaimed its properties worth Rs. 15.4 crore that had been allegedly encroached upon and fenced.

In an operation for clearing the encroachments recently, the MUDA authorities reclaimed land at T.K. Layout Survey No. 777 40X60 square feet worth Rs. 1.70 crore. This particular plot had been encroached and illegally fenced. At Dattagalli Survey No. 114 and 115 three 50X80 plots were recovered and the total value of the property is Rs. 12 crore. One more plot at T.K. Layout worth Rs. 1.70 crore has been recovered.

Earth movers were used to destroy the fence. Later, MUDA put up boards on the reclaimed sites warning against encroachment. In all, the total value of the properties recovered stand at Rs. 15.4 crore.

MUDA Commissioner Dr. D.B. Natesh, Superintending Engineer Shankar, Zonal Officer Kiran, Assistant Engineer Ravi Kumar and staff participated in the clearing operation.

But the common feeling among the public regarding such encroachment clearing operations is that MUDA allows land sharks and the influential persons to grab as much land as they can but targets only small encroachers. Action is not taken on the prime properties that are occupied by the powers that be, feel the tax-paying public.

Cong. boycotts Assembly proceedings on last day

Bengaluru, Dec.11 (KMS& SSV)- Last day of Winter Session of the State Legislative Assembly was held on Thursday amidst boycott by Opposition Congress in protest against the introduction and passage of the anti-cow slaughter bill.

This was for the first time the Opposition party stayed away from proceedings for the whole day. On Wednesday, Opposition Leader Siddharamaiah had announced that the Congress would be boycotting the whole day Assembly proceedings on Thursday for tabling and getting the controversial Karnataka Prevention of Slaughter and Preservation of Cattle Bill, without discussion.

Though Assembly Speaker Vishweshwar Hegde Kageri appealed to Opposition Congress to participate, the Congress members refused to attend and instead they participated in dharna at Freedom Park in support of farmers.

Congress MLAs participated in the Legislature Party meeting instead of attending the Assembly proceedings. They slammed the State Government for practicing 'anti-democratic' tactics to get the Bill passed without allowing Opposition to air their views.

Later, they walked up to the Freedom Park from Vidhana Soudha and extended their support to the agitating farmers.

Attended Council

District Minister launches 10-day Panchalinga Darshan in Talakad

Mysuru, Dec. 11 (SK&SSV)- The 10-day Panchalinga Darshan at Talakad in T.Narasipur Taluk of Mysuru District got off to a colourful start with traditional puja offered at illuminated Vaidyanatheshwara Temple by District Minister S.T. Somashekar last evening.

Speaking to media, he said COVID-19 Technical Advisory Committee has given permission for only 1,000 devotees per day on nine days and 1,500 on Dec.14 which is the most auspicious day. Devotees have been asked to come in batches and strictly follow safety protocol such as mask, hand sanitiser and social distancing.

Local MLA Ashwin Kumar had taken special interest in the preparations and Police had made elaborate security arrangements to check crowding of people. In 2013, an estimated 7 lakh people had attended Panchalinga Darshan but now it had been reduced drastically due to pandemic.

Somashekar said all development works were being done by Public Works Department this year. Temple Committee had sought Rs. 2.2 crore for a few emergency works and Chief Minister B.S.Yediyurappa had given his consent for all works.

The District Administration has sought Rs.2.2 crore which would be released soon, he said and added all religious activities were going on smoothly. Villagers have demanded works worth Rs.20 lakh to Rs.30 lakh and it had been referred to Departments concerned.

The Minister said that the Chief Executive Officer of Mysuru Zilla Panchayat had been asked to give compensation for those farmers whose land had been acquired for road widening work.

MLA Ashwin Kumar, ZP Member Manjunath, SP C.B. Ryshyanth, Additional SP Shivakumar, ZP CEO Paramesh, Assistant Commissioner Dr. N.C. Venkataraju, Deputy Superintendent of Police Govindaraju and others were present.

CM to have darshan

Chief Minster B.S.Yediyurappa will take part in the special puja to be held in the early hours of Dec.14. He will arrive in Mysuru on Sunday and then proceed to Talakad. Elaborate security arrangements have been made in connection with the CM's visit.

Mysuru-Mangaluru flight begins

Shetty appealed to Alliance Air CEO to reconsider timing as it would be beneficial for the air travellers if the flight takes off from Mysuru around 9 am so that they could reach Mangaluru at 10 am. They can come back on the same day evening after attending business meetings. It would also help travellers towards other destinations like Mumbai and Delhi from Mangaluru.

Replying to this, CEO Harpreet said it may be difficult to do it immediately due to logistic problems. However, she would definitely consider the request once the demand picks up.

Runway expansion

Pratap Simha said expansion of runway at Mandakalli Airport would begin once the State Government hands over 114 acres of land acquired by Karnataka Industrial Area Development Board (KIADB) to the Airport authorities. Already, this project had been approved by Airports Authority of India and Union Ministry of Civil Aviation and was awaiting for handing over of the said land to take up expansion plan.

The MP said he would meet Chief Minister B.S.Yediyurappa on Dec. 14 and request him to expedite the process of land allotment so that there would be no further delay in taking up run way expansion project. "I am optimistic that the CM will take immediate decision as money is ready to pay compensation to land losing farmers," he said.

With today's new service, as many as seven flights are making 14 movements from Mysuru Airport. As many as 35 bookings had been done from Mangaluru to Mysuru inaugural flight.

C. Narayanagowda, President, Mysuru Hotel Owners' Association, S.K. Dinesh of Mysuru Petrol Dealers Association, A.S. Satish, President, Mysore Chamber of Commerce and Industry, C.A. Jayakumar and B.S. Prashanth of MTA, Dr. Anil Thomas and others were present.

Team from Mysuru provides legal support to Borat film sequel

Padmavathi Shanthamurthy and Vidya Devaiah

Mysuru, Dec. 11 (OSR)- The SmithDehn India team in Mysuru provided legal support work, including legal research and drafting, for the Borat sequel 'Borat Subsequent Moviefilm: Delivery of Prodigious Bribe to American Regime for Make Benefit Once Glorious Nation of Kazakhstan.'

Two members of the Mysuru team, Vidya Devaiah, Managing Director of SmithDehn India and Padmavathi Shanthamurthy, Director — Legal Services, received screen credit in the movie as part of the production legal team.

'Borat: Cultural Learnings of America for Make Benefit Glorious Nation of Kazakhstan' is a 2006 British-American mockumentary comedy film where Sacha Baron Cohen stars as Borat Sagdiyev, a fictitious Kazakhstani journalist who travels through USA to make a documentary which features real-life interactions with Americans. Much of the film features unscripted vignettes of Borat interviewing and interacting with real-life Americans who believe he is a foreigner with little or no understanding of American customs.

'Borat Subsequent Moviefilm' was released in October. Critics say that the sequel that serves as a jaw-dropping expose of America, culminating in a morally incriminating appearance by an elected official will be one of this year's most talked-about films.

Poster of the movie.

Vidya told SOM that much of the legal support was during production — research to ensure the filming crew could operate seamlessly. "However, most importantly, we helped defeat a threatened injunction against the film in Georgia State Court just a few days prior to the release. We, along with our colleagues in the United Kingdom, assisted the SmithDehn legal team in the US, allowing this urgent work to be conducted expeditiously in four different time zones across the globe," she says.

"Defending against the injunction was incredibly stressful as we worked for five days with maybe two or three hours of sleep on each of those days. But ultimately it was so satisfying. With the new normal following COVID-19, we could attend the court hearing even from Mysuru and it was fantastic to be present when we won," Vidya said. The SmithDehn India team worked in the first film as well.

MUDA Chairman Rajeev inspects ongoing works

Mysuru, Dec.11(RKB&DM)- In a bid to expedite ongoing projects, Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) Chairman H.V. Rajeev inspected several ongoing major Civil and other infrastructure works in and around the city this morning.

He first visited water storage tank at Vijayanagar First stage, where works are underway for 24x7 drinking water supply. Later, he inspected the widening and development works of the road leading from CITB Kalyana Mantap at Hebbal to the Outer Ring Road. This road widening and other associated civil works have been taken up at an estimated cost of Rs. 4.98 crore. The works include asphaltation of 3.15 km stretch, construction of median and carriageway of 7.5 mt. width on both sides, building box drainages along the road wherever necessary and cobble stone pavement of footpath on either side.

Later, Rajeev inspected the Ground Level and Elevated Level Water storage reservoir at Vijayanagar Fourth stage, Waste water treatment plant at Koorgalli, the storm water drainage system along Hunsur Road near Hinkal, Kalidasa Road development works upto the Outer Ring Road, construction of Government College building at Kumbarakoppal, building of class rooms on the first floor of Maharani's Junior College for Girls on N.S. Road, construction of an office building at Ittigegud's Linganna Circle (near Zoo), construction of double road leading from Manandawadi Road to the Railway crossing at J.P. Nagar first stage, development works on the stretch of road leading from Outer Ring Road to Kavita Bakery in J.P. Nagar and construction of short basement and installation of grills on the path leading to the park along the old Ring Road in Srirampura third stage.

OPD, consultation services hit

The Indian Medical Association (IMA), called for withdrawal of all non-essential and non-COVID services between 6 am and 6 pm today. However, emergency services, including casualty, labour rooms and emergency surgeries functioned as they were exempted from the strike along with ICU and CCU.

The IMA has condemned the Centre's decision to allow post-graduate Ayurveda doctors to formally practice general surgery, including ortho and dentistry. The IMA has called it the Central government's 'retrograde step' of mixing the systems and that the 'mixopathy' would be resisted. In Mysuru, the strike was supported by Mysore Association of Hospitals, Nursing Homes and Diagnostic Centres (MAHAN), IMA, Surgical Society, Family Physicians Association, ENT Association, Orthopaedic Association and Physicians Association. These Associations held a protest in front of IMA office on Sayyaji Rao Road.

Those functioning in the emergency wings and COVID Departments sported a black band on their arms as a mark of protest. Messages expressing solidarity with the protest were displayed on banners outside a few private hospitals.

State-run KR and Cheluvamba Hospitals functioned as usual. But there was extra rush as patients who were turned away by private hospitals landed up there. Long queues were seen in front of OPDs of all departments including general medicine, ortho, dental and ophthalmology.

At District Hospital on KRS Road that is converted as COVID Hospital, it was business as usual and patients were treated with utmost care and priority.

KSRTC staff observe one hour strike

Passengers at Sub-Urban Bus stand wait for buses as the KSRTC staff went on an hour-long strike this morning.

Mysuru, Dec.11 (MTY&SSV)- Bus service to several districts was affected for more than an hour after KSRTC staff went on strike urging the State Government to treat them as Government employees in city this morning.

However, the city bus service remained unaffected. The bus service to outside Mysuru was normal till 11 am. The KSRTC Employees Union members from Bengaluru called local office-bearers to observe strike at least for one hour to build pressure on the Government to fulfill their demands. Accordingly, the local staff struck work from 11:30 am to 12:30 pm.

The buses towards Bengaluru, Mandya, Chamarajanagar, Kushalnagar, Malavalli, Tumakuru, Chitradurga and other places were stopped for one hour. But, inter-State buses towards Tamil Nadu and Kerala plied normally.

Passengers faced hardship as the KSRTC staff went on strike for one hour. Buses were not in the bay and even drivers and conductors were not visible. The service resumed after 12:30 pm.

Police had provided security near Sub-Urban Bus Stand as precautionary measure.

Decoding Mythology

Dr. Devdutt Pattanaik - Author, Speaker, Illustrator, Mythologist

Did Karuppu Swamy live 12,000 years ago?

So, the Government has appointed a committee to delve into the "true" history of India, starting from 12,000 years ago, since the Ice Age, which Hindutva historians assume is the "pralaya" of the Puranas. The committee has only "upper" caste men. No one from below the Vindhyas, no one from tribal communities. But, there is much in India, and Hinduism, that is neither northern, nor Brahmanical. Take the case of Karuppu Swamy for example, the dark-complexioned God, adored in rural Tamil Nadu and Kerala.

In South India, one is familiar with the gigantic temples with its massive gopurams. These temples are found especially in Tamil Nadu, Andhra Pradesh and Karnataka. But these structures are less than a thousand years old. Much older are the tiny village and clan Gods such as Karuppu Swamy, who have been worshipped perhaps long before Brahmanism entered South India.

These rituals remind us of the Bhuta performances found in Tulu Nadu in Southern Karnataka and Thaiyyam performance found in Northern Kerala. These are clear practices from the pre-Vedic times through which the common man connected with the divine spirits, not through images but through masked dancers. Anthropologists are of the opinion that Karuppu Swamy was perhaps a great hero. A hero who protected and defended the land and the local cattle from raiders. Historically, men who died defending the land and protecting the community were often buried. They usually had stones raised at their graves. These were the various hero stones, found all across South India. This probably was the reason that inspired the rise of the Hindu temple in the post-Vedic period.

Some people also see Karuppu Swamy as Aiyanar, the son of Shiva. Some see him as the son of Vishnu. Some see him as the son of both Vishnu and Shiva. He is sometimes also associated with other village Gods who populate the country side and are the guardians of the land.

For example, Karuppu Swamy is part of the divine pantheon associated with Ayyappa in Sabarimalai, indicating his tribal and forest roots. These local 'desi' Gods are very different from the distant Brahmanical 'margi' Gods such as Perumal (Vishnu) and Murugan (Kartikeya), whose southern roots are never acknowledged by North Indian Brahmins.

The image of Karuppu Swamy is of a dark muscular God. He usually has two hands, holding either a hooked machete or an aruval, or a spear, chain or gada in one hand. He also has a thick moustache. He is either in a standing or sitting position. He is occasionally riding a horse and is accompanied either by a dog, a lion or a tiger. He is always ready to battle. He is sometimes associated with a consort and sometimes is considered as a bachelor God. In temples, he is offered gifts. These include food, such as meat, camphor, ghee, cloves.

His priests come from "lower" caste communities. They approach him by practising celibacy, all night vigils. They chant his 108 names. They also go into a trance when his spirit enters their body. Doing so, he can solve problems of the local communities. Such as one that are related to marriage, childbirth and property disputes within the family. His worship travelled with indentured labourers in 19th century to the Caribbean.

CharSur Arts Foundation, a non-profit charitable trust created to support Karnatak music, will host the Karnatak Music Festival themed 'Shakti - The Primordial Force' online from Dec. 15 to 30.

The two-week-long concert will be available for live-streaming from the comfort of your home on www.charsur.in.live, a US-based online live-streaming platform.

With the festive season round the corner, options to celebrate are on hold for most in view of the pandemic. In the current climate, when it comes to the music industry, only the most creative and tech-savvy are thriving.

When the nation came to a standstill, so did the music industry. With the gradual reopening of the economy, safety is still a primary concern and gone are the days of large social gatherings.

CharSur Arts Foundation was quick to adapt and ensured that their audiences received their yearly dose of entertainment. They joined hands with In.Live, a US-based online live streaming platform to bring together a two-week-long concert which will be available for live streaming from your home.

The live-streaming culture is a natural welcome to those who want a complete concert experience keeping in mind the current limitations. Over the past few months, this shift in consumer perception has been embraced by artistes and concert organizers who are keen to utilize technology to the fullest and use innovation to their advantage.

For the first time in its history, the concert will combine the colour and charm of traditional Karnatak music and will safely bring this experience to the people of India and the US through a live-streaming platform.

The festival will begin on Dec. 15, where two concerts will be scheduled for vodcasts per day at 4 pm and 6.15 pm (IST). Viewers can stream the concert on the browser based In.Live platform.

The music festival will offer high-quality audio and video streams. Additionally, the platform extends secure and integrated ticketing and viewing, which ensures that only ticket holders can view the performance and archives. Users with a valid season ticket can watch the performances post the live-stream via vodcasts that will be available till mid January, 2021.

The live-stream festival will bring together thirty internationally acclaimed artistes like Sikkil C. Gurucharan, Jayanti Kumaresh, Gayathri Venkataraghavan, K. Bharath Sundar, Kunnakudi Balamuralikrishna, Amritha Murali, Sriranjani Santhanagopalan, Vignesh Ishwar and R.K. Shriram Kumar, among others.

Early bird tickets are quickly selling-out indicating a demand for a novel experience such as this. In.Live is making the process interactive and easy, offering high-quality video and audio, bringing the concert to life wherever you are. In.Live sees the collaboration as a natural progression to the state of global events and how people will experience them in the future.

Vid. Shamith

Mysuru, Dec. 11- An online vocal concert by city's young talent, Vidu. S. Chaithrika will be premièred on the YouTube channel of Sri Thyagaraja Sangeetha Sabha Charitable Trust, Mysuru, as the next concert under its ongoing series, 'Yuva Sangeetha Sambhrama - 2020,' at 5 pm on Dec. 12, showcasing promising young artistes.

Chaithrika was initiated into classical music by her grandmother, Vidu. Indira Shankar from a very early age. Later she came under the tutelage of Mysuru's senior musician and scholar, 'Sangeetha Saraswathi' Vidu. R.N. Shreelatha, where she still continues her higher studies.

Chaithrika has secured State-level first rank in senior and fourth rank in pre-Vidwat classical music examinations conducted by KSEE Board.

She gave her first concert at the age of eleven and has performed in almost all the Sabhas in Mysuru and several other places including many online platforms of reputed Sabhas.

She is a recipient of scholarship from Karnataka Sangeetha Nritya Academy, first prize in Ranjan Harve Memorial State-level Raga-Tana-Pallavi competition and second prize for singing in National Youth Festival conducted by the Association of Indian Universities, representing Mysuru University. Chaithrika was interviewed by AIR under 'Pratibha Pallava' programme and has been honoured by many organisations for her achievements in music.

In this concert, she will be accompanied by talented young artistes, Vid. Amogh Nadadur on violin, Vid. Y.P. Vikram Bharadwaj on mridanga and Vid. Shamith S. Gowda on ghata.

Music lovers are requested to watch the concert by visiting Sabha's YouTube channel [https://www.youtube.com/channel/UC5duKEUSvk8XXBra6TWQn-SA] and encourage the young artistes, says a press release from Sabha Hon. Secretary Vid. H.K. Narasimhamurthy.

WORD OF THE DAY

Mangle

Pronunciation: MANG-gul.
Meaning: To injure with deep disfiguring wounds by cutting, tearing, or crushing; to spoil, injure, or make incoherent especially through ineptitude.
Origin: Besides the "mutilate" verb mangle, English has the noun mangle ("a machine for ironing laundry by passing it between heated rollers") and its related verb ("to press or smooth with a mangle"). There's no etymological relationship, however, between that pair and the mangle that means "to mutilate or bungle." The ironing-related homographs come from Dutch and ultimately from a Latin word that also gave English mangonel, the name for a military engine used to hurl missiles. The injury-related mangle comes from Anglo-French and may be a relation of the words maim and mayhem via Anglo-French mahaigner, "to maim."
Example: "What do we even know about Dua Lipa—or Dula Peep, as many of her fans call her (after Wendy Williams famously mangled the singer's name on her talk show)?" — Mikael Wood

THE ODD WORD

Macrotous

Big-eared.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

A word in your shell-like

Meaning: I would like to talk to you.
Origin: 'Shell-like' has been used to mean a person's ear since the late 19th century. Clearly this refers to the ear's shape. The earliest citation of the words in that context that we can find is Thomas Hood's romantic poem Bianca's Dream, 1827:
This, with more tender logic of the kind,
He pour'd into her small and shell-like ear,
That timidly against his lips inclin'd;
Meanwhile her eyes glanced on the silver sphere
That even now began to steal behind
A dewy vapour, which was lingering near,
Wherein the dull moon crept all dim and pale,
Just like a virgin putting on the veil.
Despite Hood's rather syrupy effort the phrase failed to catch the public imagination and didn't appear again in print for some years. The next citation we can find is in an example of romantic fiction from the USA, in what sounds like pre-bodice-ripper style, from a perhaps unlikely source - the Mckean County Miner, Smethport, Pennsylvania, February 1878:
"Without a word he clasped Miss Patterson in his arms. 'My darling!' was all he said. She struggled to free herself, strongly at first: but as he whispered something in the crimson shell-like ear close to his trembling lips, the pretty head sank upon his shoulder..."

QUOTE BOX

The tongue has no bones, but is strong enough to break a heart. So be careful with your words.—Unknown

East Bengal earns first point of the season after hard-fought draw with Jamshedpur

Vasco, Dec. 11- East Bengal picked up their first point in the Hero Indian Super League (Hero ISL) 2020-21 after a 0-0 draw with Jamshedpur FC at the Tilak Maidan Stadium in Vasco yesterday.

Jamshedpur began positively and had a big chance to go in front in the 6th minute when a delightful ball by Mohammad Mobashir had put Aniket Jadhav through on goal. Unfortunately for Jamshedpur, Aniket couldn't quite apply the finishing touch and ended up blazing his shot over the crossbar.

East Bengal handed Jamshedpur the initiative in the 25th minute when Lyngdoh was sent off for a second yellow card after a tackle on Alexandre Lima.

Jamshedpur almost went in front four minutes later after Nerijus Valskis volleyed a cross from the right just wide of the target. They were also inches away from taking the lead in the 38th minute when a Stephen Eze header from a corner rattled the woodwork.

The second half witnessed Jamshedpur applying the pressure on East Bengal's defence from the get-go, but the Kolkata club did well to deny the opposition attackers time and space on the ball. As a result, Coyle's men found it difficult to create any clear-cut opportunities to score from.

Jamshedpur also lost their man advantage in second half injury time after Laldinliana received his marching orders for a second yellow card. In the end, neither team could create an opening for a good chance at goal in the closing stages as both sides had to share the spoils.

Hero of the Match – Mohamed Irshad; HL Winning Pass of the Match – Mohammad Mobashir (Jamshedpur FC).
